ASSOCIATION
OF
SCHOOL BOARDS
BYLAWS

ORIGINALLY ADOPTED 1966

Including Amendments Approved through November 21, 2009

BYLAWS OF THE NEVADA ASSOCIATION OF SCHOOL BOARDS

ARTICLE I

NAME AND PURPOSE

The name of this organization shall be the Nevada Association of School Boards (NASB), a nonprofit corporation, in accordance with the provisions of the laws of the State of Nevada as provided in sections 81.350 to 81.400 inclusive.

The purpose of this organization shall be:

1. To provide constant improvement of public school education in the State of Nevada;
2. To provide for closer cooperation among the school boards of the State;
3. To provide information and assistance to individual school boards and members;
4. To cooperate to the fullest extent with public officials, school administrators, teachers, interested individuals and organizations to advance the cause of public school education; and
5. To promote constructive school legislation, and provide the legislature with basic information pertaining to public education in the State and the various districts when requested or when deemed appropriate by the NASB.
6. That this is a non-profit, non-stock corporation, organized solely for educational and other general purposes under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.<sup>1</sup>

ARTICLE II

MEMBERSHIP

1. ACTIVE—The board of trustees of any school district in the State of Nevada may become active members by paying their annual dues.
2. HONORARY—Each past president of the NASB shall be accorded honorary membership in the Association without the payment of dues. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, elect as an honorary member, without the payment of dues, the State Board of Education or any person who has made an outstanding contribution in furthering the cause of education in Nevada.
3. All county superintendents and school administrators shall be invited to attend the annual meeting of the NASB, with the right of discussion.

<sup>1</sup> Amended by the Board of Directors by a unanimous vote to comply with new Internal Revenue Service requirements, May 5, 2007.

ARTICLE III

VOTES AND DELEGATES

1. Voting on any issues shall be:
  - A. At any regular or special meeting of the NASB or of the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee as the case may be; or
  - B. By mail ballot submitted to the Directors, if such procedure is first approved by the Executive Committee.
2. Each board of trustees may be represented in meetings of the NASB by as many delegates as it chooses to send.
3. Each board of trustees shall be entitled to one vote. No board shall be allowed to represent another by proxy.
4. All classes of membership shall have the right of discussion.
5. Each member board of trustees shall be entitled to select one member to act as a voting director.
6. All active members have the right to make a motion or to second a motion.
7. Honorary members shall not have the right to vote.
8. Any member of the Executive Committee or a Director may request a roll call vote when any vote is taken in joint meetings of the Executive Committee and Board of Directors.
  - a. In the event a school district is represented on the Executive Committee and Board of Directors and a difference of opinion exists about the vote to be cast on behalf of the school district, the Director shall vote on behalf of that district when a roll call vote is taken.
  - b. In the absence of the Director in a contested vote, the more senior member of the Executive Committee from that county will vote on behalf of the school district.
  - c. In the absence of a Director or member of the Executive Committee in a contested vote, the more senior school board member of that county attending the meeting shall vote for that school district.<sup>2</sup>

ARTICLE IV

FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the NASB shall be from July 1 of one year through June 30 of the following year.

<sup>2</sup> Adopted by the Executive Committee and Board of Directors at the joint meeting on October 10, 2009, then adopted unanimously in the General Membership meeting, November 21, 2009.

ARTICLE V

MEETINGS

1. Conferences of the NASB will be held as arranged by the Executive Director with approval of the Executive Committee.
2. Special meetings may be called at any time by the President or by a majority of the Executive Committee or by one-third of the Directors. There shall be a one week written notice for a special meeting.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS, EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. Officers and members of the Executive Committee and Board of Directors shall be active members of the NASB.
2. The Executive Committee of the NASB shall be composed of the officers of the NASB and former NASB presidents still serving in their school districts. The Executive Committee shall always include at least two voting members from Clark County and one from Washoe County. If the NASB officers and past presidents do not include two from Clark or one from Washoe, the president of the school board in that district shall appoint a representative (or two) to serve on the Executive Committee.<sup>3</sup>
3. The officers of the NASB, in rank order, shall be the President, President-Elect, Vice President, Legislative Chairman, Immediate Past President, and Past President. Officers may serve concurrently as a member of the Board of Directors.
4. Board of Directors—One individual member from each of the seventeen county school boards of trustees shall constitute the Board of Directors.
5. The Board of Directors shall conduct a minimum of four regular meetings each year.
6. The Executive Committee shall meet at least six times each year.

<sup>3</sup> Permanent representation on the Executive Committee for Clark and Washoe school districts was adopted in concept by the Board of Directors by a unanimous vote July 26, 2003. The Association has been operating in accordance with provisions related to the inclusion of former NASB presidents on the Executive Committee since before January 2003, although it could not be established that the Board of Directors amended the Bylaws to reflect that intention. After research of the Association's minutes and at the Direction of the NASB Executive Committee by action taken on June 25, 2007, language to incorporate these concepts into the Bylaws was prepared, with unanimous approval by the Board of Directors on August 18, 2007. Following further discussion in late 2008, further clarification was adopted unanimously by the Executive Committee and Board of Directors on January 5, 2009, then adopted unanimously in the General Membership meeting, November 21, 2009.

ARTICLE VII

ELECTION OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

1. The President-Elect, Vice President, and Legislative Chair<sup>4</sup> shall be elected by a majority vote of the Directors at the annual meeting.
2. Each of the seventeen county boards of trustees shall select one of its members to serve as a Director of the NASB for a term of two years. Filling of vacancies (Director) is the responsibility of the particular board of trustees.
3. Nominations—Nominations for officers shall be made by the Nominating Committee. The Committee shall seek recommendations for possible candidates from each school board through the NASB Director of each of the respective school districts.
5. It shall be the duty of the Nominating Committee to nominate at least one candidate for each of the following offices: President-Elect, Vice President and Legislative Chairman.
6. Additional nominations for officers may be made from the floor provided consent of each candidate has been obtained before the candidate's name is placed in nomination.

ARTICLE VIII

DUTIES OF OFFICERS AND TERMS OF OFFICE (EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE)

1. President—The President shall have such duties and powers as are usually exercised by such officers and:

  5. The Immediate Past President shall:
    - A. Act as advisor to NASB Executive Committee;
    - B. Perform special tasks as requested by the President or the Executive Committee;
    - C. Serve as chairman of the Nominating Committee;

<sup>5</sup> Amended by the Board of Directors by a unanimous vote, November 16, 2006.

- D. Assist his successor as President by providing an orientation of the duties of the office;
  - E. Provide in-service training programs for local board presidents; and
  - F. Act as coordinator of the resources of and services offered by NASB and determine the need for additional services.
6. The Past President shall:
- A. In the absence or inability to serve of the Immediate Past President assume the duties of that office.
7. The terms of office for the President, President-Elect, Vice President, and Legislative Chairman<sup>6</sup> shall be for one year, to commence at the close of the annual meeting.
8. Officers shall remain in office until a successor has been named.

ARTICLE IX

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Except as otherwise provided by these Bylaws, the management of the affairs of the Association is vested in the Board of Directors. It shall:

1. Adopt rules not inconsistent with the provisions of these Bylaws;
2. Be responsible for proposing and administering programs and activities that are in harmony with the purposes of the Association;
3. Have general charge of the funds and property of the NASB;
4. Have final approval of the appointment of the Executive Director;
5. Advise local boards of NASB activities;
6. Approve an annual budget; and
7. Represent NASB and their local boards at regional and national meetings of NSBA.

ARTICLE XII

COMMITTEES

<sup>8</sup> Discussed by the Executive Committee and Board of Directors extensively on January 12, 2008; amended by a unanimous vote of the Board of Directors on February 20, 2008.

1. Nominating and Awards Committee— There shall be a nominating and awards committee consisting of the Immediate Past President, who shall be the chairman, and four directors who shall be appointed annually by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall appoint directors from geographically diverse districts, and shall not appoint the director from the chairman’s district. <sup>9</sup> In the absence or inability of the Immediate Past President to serve, the President shall act as chairman.
  - A. In addition to the responsibility to nominate persons for officer positions, the Nomination and Awards Committee shall receive nominations for and designate persons to be recognized annually for distinguished service to public education.
2. The following shall be established and maintained as standing committees of NASB.
  - A. Legislative Committee whose membership consists of each of the legislative representatives of the member boards;
  - B. Education Reform Committee;
  - C. School Funding and Finance Committee; and
  - D. Federal Relations Network Committee.
3. The President shall appoint all other standing and special committees required by these Bylaws or deemed necessary to properly perform and carry out the work and purposes of the Association.

ARTICLE XIII

TRAVEL

Legal authorization for NASB members to attend state, regional, or national conventions is contained in Section 1, Chapter 386 of NRS, enacted by the 1963 Legislature. This act provides that transportation and per diem to official meetings constitutes a legal expenditure of the particular school district.

ARTICLE XIV

RESOLUTIONS

All resolutions shall be brought before the Executive Committee and/or the Board of Directors of the Association for their study and recommendation and for approval or rejection. Membership shall be advised of all resolutions presented on behalf of the NASB.

ARTICLE XV

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

---

<sup>9</sup> This Article was revised to encourage wider representation for the selection of award recipients and nominations for officers. The change was unanimously adopted by the Executive Committee and Board of Directors on January 5, 2009, then unanimously adopted by the General Membership held November 21, 2009..

The rules contained in Robert's Rules of Order, Revised, shall govern this Association in all cases in which they are not inconsistent with these Bylaws, or with state or federal laws.

ARTICLE XVI

AMENDMENT OF BYLAWS

The Bylaws can be amended at any regular meeting of the NASB by a two-thirds vote, provided that the amendment has been submitted in writing to the Directors and Executive Committee thirty days prior to the meeting.

Any active member of NASB may present an amendment.

ARTICLE XVII

DUES

1. The membership fee shall be paid by August 1 of each fiscal year to the Executive Director of NASB.
2. The amount of membership dues shall be set and revised as necessary by the Executive Committee and approved by the Board of Directors. In setting, revising, and approving the amount of membership dues, the Executive Committee and Board of Directors shall consider the size of the district, the district's ability to pay, and the fiscal needs of the Association.<sup>10</sup>
3. The minimum annual dues for membership in the Association shall be $2,500, unless otherwise determined by unanimous consent of the Executive Committee pursuant to section 3 of this Article.
4. The dues amounts approved pursuant to section 3 of this Article shall be increased annually by 5%, excluding Clark and Washoe. The Executive Committee shall separately determine the amount of increase, if any, to Clark and Washoe. Any increase to Clark and Washoe must be approved by the unanimous consent of the Executive Committee and subsequently approved by two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors.
5. When dues are calculated for each fiscal year in accordance with section 5 of this Article, a new base amount will have been established to which the 5% annual increase must be applied when calculating the dues for the following fiscal year. In like manner, a new base amount will be established each year thereafter to which the annual increase will be applied. <sup>11</sup>

<sup>10</sup> Sections 3, 4, 5, and 6 were originally adopted by the Board of Directors by a unanimous vote on November 11, 2004. These sections were not included in electronic document provided to new Executive Director in October 2006. After research of the Association's minutes and at the Direction of the NASB Executive Committee by action taken on June 25, 2007, added to electronic Bylaws.

<sup>11</sup> This Article of the Bylaws has been previously amended on these dates prior to revisions approved by a unanimous vote of the Board of Directors on August 18, 2007: November 16, 2973; May

ARTICLE XVIII

DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS UPON DISSOLUTION

1. Upon the winding up and dissolution of this corporation, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the corporation, the remaining assets shall be distributed to a non-profit fund, foundation or corporation, which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational purposes and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.<sup>16</sup>
2. Upon the winding up and dissolution of this corporation, no part of the net earnings of this corporation shall ever inure to or for the benefit of or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be empowered to pay compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the exempt
